DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/24/2010 has been entered. Claims 1, 8-31, and 38-53 were previously cancelled, claims 2-7 and 32-37 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 2, 4, 6, 32, 34, and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kondo (US 7,031,384 B2).

The applied reference has a common assignee and one common inventor (Tetsushi Kokubo) with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Re claims 2, 4, 6, 32, 34, and 36, Kondo discloses of a system, comprising:

a receiving unit for receiving a request from a user (col 2, lines 20-32: image processing unit receives input feature information selected by the user);

an information processing apparatus (col 2, line 17: image processing apparatus); and a motion control apparatus (col 2, line 30: driving section);

wherein the information processing apparatus comprising:

a processor; a memory coupled to the processor (col 2, lines 20-42: image processing apparatus and memory);

input means for inputting image data via a network (col 2, line 22: signal input; col 9, line 17: network); motion vector detecting means for detecting a plurality of motion vectors in the image data (col 2, lines 44-48);

motion data generating means for generating motion data as a function of the plurality of motion vectors detected in the image data (col 4, lines 35-55: feature information - outputting the motion data to the chair; col 6, line 21- col 7, line 15: different components of motion control signal);

ID generating means for generating an ID corresponding to a set of the image data input via said input means and the motion data generated by said motion data generating means (col 3, lines 35-67: correlating each of the motion components to the image information); transmitting means for transmitting the image data, the motion data, and the ID data, in a mutually related fashion, to a second apparatus via said network (col 9, lines 9-18);

Art Unit: 3715

and wherein the motion apparatus comprising:

a receiving unit for receiving the image data, the motion data, and the ID data (col 5, lines 60-67: feature information processing section); and a motion presenting unit for outputting the image and motion as a function of the received image data, ID data, and motion data (display section and driving section), wherein when the image data is output, a horizontal component, a vertical component, a rotational component and zoom component data generated from the motion vectors detected from the image data being output are weighted, synchronized and output (col 1, lines 43-49: detecting a motion related signal related to motion, in accordance with an image signal; and generating a motion control signal in accordance with the motion-related signal; col 3, lines 45-65: total of four components of a horizontal component, a vertical component, rotational component and zoom component; col 4, lines 24-27, each component may be weighted based on the positional relationship on the image plane; lines 48-54: forces capable of providing a stimulus in a form in which the physical sensation is the same... of the observer who observes the image).

Applicant cannot rely upon the foreign priority papers to overcome this rejection because a translation of said papers has not been made of record in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55.

See MPEP § 201.15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 3, 5, 7, 33, 35, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kondo (US 7,031,384 B2) in view of Muratani et al. (US 6,119,109).
Re claims 3, 5, 7, 33, 35 and 37, Kondo does not teach of charging means for charging total fee including a fee for use of said information processing apparatus and a fee for use of the second apparatus; and data generating means for generating data indicating the amount of fee for use of the second apparatus, included in said total fee charged by said charging means. Muratani teaches of a billing processor using billing attribute data corresponding to the content to perform predetermined billing process (abstract; col 5, lines 5-40). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to obtain a payment for utilizing motion vector detection services, display services and driving apparatus.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments in view of the newly amended limitations of claims 2, 4, 6, 32, 34 and 36, see pages 12 and 13, filed 3/1/2010, with respect to 103 rejection of Chalom in view of Ohga of claims 2-7 and 32-37 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 103 rejection of Chalom in view of Ohga has been withdrawn.

Applicant's argument with respect to claims 2-7 and 32-37 in regard to 102 rejection of Kondo have been considered, newly amended limitations have been addressed and not repeated herein.
